

YUKON

FEDERATION OF LABOUR

History

Chartered in 1980 by the Canadian Labour Congress, We are an umbrella organization made up of affiliated unions and locals from throughout the Yukon.

About Us

We represent all Yukon workers regardless of union affiliation: the unionized, private sector employees, unorganized and excluded employees.

Affiliates

There are currently 7 Unions affiliated with the YFL, representing over 7,000 workers. Only 1 of every 3 workers has the protection of a union in the Yukon.

What We Do

The Yukon Federation of Labour works for the interests and advancement of all Yukon workers' rights.
